
MANZILIAN SUGARING – WHAT TO EXPECT AND FAQs

To ensure you have the best possible Sugar(ed) experience, we'd like to share some tips on how you can prepare for your Manzilian session:

1. How long does my hair need to be to get sugared?

At least 3mm long. Think "grain of rice". At least Japanese to Jasmine if you want to be specific. And if in doubt, the longer, the better. We can always trim if need be.

Please do not send any photographs of (any part of) your man-scape to be evaluated –this may result in the cancellation of your session and any future booking (regardless of treatment area).

Sugar(ed) reserves the right to refuse service to any person demonstrating inappropriate behaviour.

2. Proper Hygiene and Bathing

Try to have a shower or at least cleanse the Manzilian area before your session. Clean, fresh skin will help make the hair removal process smoother and more effective.

3. Exfoliation for Reduced Discomfort:

To minimise discomfort and reduce the chance of ingrown hairs, we recommend moisturising daily with a non-comedogenic lotion and exfoliating your skin about 3 days before your treatment.

4. Do I have to be fully naked for a Manzilian?

Yes, but only waist-down. Our sugarists will need to access the entire "man-scape" in order to sugar you effectively and efficiently. If you are getting a Mankini, disposable underwear will be provided.

5. Will the sugaring be done by a male therapist?

Sugar(ed) is proudly run by an all-female team but rest assured, our sugarists undergo strict training and uphold the highest professional standards for all treatments. Whilst we do encourage open communication, any questions of a personal nature will not be tolerated.

6. Do you sugar the entire "man-scape", including the shaft and crack?

Yes – if there's hair, we will sugar it unless you ask us not to.

7. Are there involuntary physical responses that may occur during the treatment?

Now, we understand that intimate grooming can sometimes raise questions or concerns, including the possibility of certain physiological responses. During your Manzilian appointment, it's entirely normal for some clients to experience increased blood flow, which can result in an erection. We want to reassure you that this is a natural bodily reaction and is not something to be embarrassed about – just don't act on it. Our sugarists are trained to handle such situations with the utmost professionalism, respect, and discretion.

Pre-ejaculation fluid is a rare occurrence. If it is just a drop or so, our sugarists are professionals and may continue the treatment should they feel comfortable doing so. Ejaculations are not accepted and you will be asked to pay in full and leave immediately.

8. Post-Shower Moisturizing:

After showering, moisturise your skin to keep it soft and hydrated. This helps maintain healthy skin and can aid in reducing irritation after your Manzilian treatment.

By incorporating these practices into your daily skincare routine, you'll not only enhance your comfort during the treatment but also promote healthier, smoother skin in the long run.
